Planting a Brighter Future!

Leila Arboretum Children's Garden

Groups of all sizes and ages are welcome to explore the Children's Garden! The garden is open for visitors April through October. Every group will have a guided tour of the garden and each child will receive a plant or seeds to take home.

Group Admission:

$3/person ($30 minimum)

Children's Garden Class:

$45+$3/Person Admission

“ Sign up for another class at the Children's Garden or at Kingman Museum for the same day and receive a discount! Ask the Education Manager for more details. ”

Where to Eat Lunch

Leila Arboretum and the Children's Garden feature many places for your group to enjoy your lunch. The Children's Garden has a pavilion with tables and benches for group use. Another option is to bring blankets and eat in one of the many grassy areas of the Arboretum.

Payment Options

The total balance may be paid either by check, money order, cash, or a credit card. We request that the balance due be paid in one single form rather than a combination.
